GLOVERS
of
MARENGO COUNTY, ALABAMA^c

compiled by
Sara Elizabeth Mason

Arms: Sable on a chevron ermine between three crescents argent.
Crest: An eagle's head erased sable,
langued gules
Motto: "Surgite lumen adest"

Some years ago Lilian (Prout) Long began a search for members of the Glover families who had settled in Marengo County, Alabama about 1819. The information which she collected then has formed the basis for this compilation and many other members of the family have helped expand it by generously contributing data, especially about the present generation.

Several lines, however, have been constructed, entirely from court records and are therefore subject to error. Marengo records are not indexed and often the pages have two numbers, hence pagination is not cited. I have attempted to give the source always. To save space, these sources are listed and then referred to only by the appropriate number.

There were numerous Glover families in Alabama during the first quarter of the nineteenth century. Many of them seem to have migrated from the old Ninety-Six District of South Carolina, and a search of records there would probably show the relationship. I have not attempted to delve into any by Alabama records and this work concerns only the descendents of Frederick Glover (d. 1797/98). His six children are designated by the letters A through F, and these letters, repeated, provide the key to the descendents of each line. As much information as is available about each family is given before going to the next of Frederick's children. Thus, the oldest child, Benjamin Glover, is A and all of his family is given before the next line B, Olivia or Mary Glover's descendents are listed.

No numbering scheme with so many names, especially with a repetition of the same one so often, is simple. But it is hoped that the system adopted is sufficiently clear. Perhaps some other member of the family can correct and enlarge this small beginning into a more complete Glover genealogy.

EARLY GLOVERS

There were Glovers settled in Virginia by the middle of the seventeenth century. It has been presumed that these Virginia Glovers were descendants of Richard Glover who emigrated to Virginia on the Assurance, July 24, 1635. This Richard Glover was a member of a merchant family living in Lond, another branch of which settled in New England. The Virginia emigrant is presumed to have settled in York Co., Va., marrying soon after his arrival. He left several sons, one of whom is said to be William Glover who was in Henrico Co., Va. in the latter part of the seventeenth century, but moved to the coastal region of North Carolina about 1690. This William Glover served briefly as a colonial governor of North Carolina. The William Glover below may be a son of the governor, or he may stem from the Glover families who were in Isle of Wight, Surry and Sussex counties in Virginia about the turn of the century.

Further research is needed to establish the line conclusively, but the following seems probable:

Issue: (Named in William Glover's will)

1. Lydia Glover m. _____ Harris
- (a) Mourning Harris

There were probably other children. Evidence points to this Mourning Harris as the one who married her cousin John Norwood and became the mother of Sarah Serena Norwood who married Allen Glover in Abbeville, S. C. (See C)

2. John Glover
3. William Glover
4. George Glover
5. Joseph Glover
6. Benjamin Glover (see later)
7. Sarah Glover m. _____ Parrish (Perrishe?)

In the 1750's the names of these Glovers appear on the muster rolls for the Granville Co. (N. C.) militia. In 1764 the regiment commanded by Col. Wm. Eaton, had a company under Capt. John Glover (97 men) which included, among others: William Glover, Sgt., John Glover, Jr., Joseph Glover, pvts., and George Glover, Lt. This generation most probably remained in North Carolina, though by the time of the Revolution they had scattered into other counties and a large group of them seem to have moved south to the Old Ninety-Six District of South Carolina.

(1) Frederick Glover (named in grandfather's will)

Since the abstract of Benjamin Glover's will (1764) does not name issue, the above is largely based on the similarity of names and the dates. A search of North Carolina records might establish some descendants.

Frederick Glover⁸
b. ca. 1740
d. 1797/98
m.

Very little is actually known about him. He was undoubtedly born in North Carolina, probably about 1740 as he must have been of legal age to administer his grandmother's estate in 1763. No records of his marriage have been found. Older generations seem to have thought he married Elizabeth Cato, and the name Cato was given to descendants. Other branches have stated that he married Sarah or Mary Bean, a daughter of William Bean of North Carolina. It is quite possible he was married twice.

Frederick Glover probably moved to South Carolina in the 1770's and there are indications that he owned land in the Ninety-Sixth District as early as 1772. This area of South Carolina was a frontier outpost then, the site of numerous skirmishes with Indians, Tories and British regulars. By 1790 the region was populous enough to be divided into several counties and the first census lists several families of Glovers, as well as Norwoods, Harrises, Wardlaws, and Porters, probably all closely related.

This is probably the Frederick Glover who served in the South Carolina militia during the Revolution and, on July 18, 1785 received payment of 3 pounds, 11 shillings, 5 pence for his services. (Salley, A. S. Stub entries of endents issued in payment of claims against S. C. growing out of the Revolution. Columbia, S. C., 1951 #642, Bk. &) At the same time John and Drewry Glover received payment for their services.

In the first census (1790) Abbeville District, S.C., Frederick Glover is listed as having in his household besides himself:

2 males over 16 years of age (Allen and John F.)
2 females

The oldest son, Benjamin, was in Wilkes Co., Ga. 1788/90 as his name appears on deeds and transactions in Georgia. His father-in-law, John Oliver was living in Georgia at that time. The two females are more likely to be Frederick's daughters. If this assumption is right, then Frederick Glover married twice, his first wife died before 1790, and he married again before 1793. Since no wife is mentioned in his will, the second wife must have died before 1797.

Frederick Glover's will is dated Dec. 31, 1796, proved Sept. 15, 1798 in Edgefield District, S. C. (Box 39, Pk. 834)

Issue named in this will:

A. Benjamin Glover	b. 1768	Executor
B. Olivia (or Mary) Glover		c. before 1797
C. Allen Glover	1770
D. John Frederick Glover	1772
E. Willey Glover	1778
F. Wiley Glover	1794

Of these five children, Benjamin, Allen and Willey migrated to Marengo Co., Ala., and the children of Olivia and John Frederick came with them. Only Wiley Glover remained in South Carolina.

A. Benjamin Glover ¹	m. Mary Oliver ¹
b. 1768	: b. ca. 1770
d. March 1820, Marengo Co.:	d. 1840 Marengo Co., Ala.
m.	: Marengo Census, 1830
	: Daughter of John Oliver of Abbeville,
	: S. C. and Wilkes Co. Ga.

He probably married before 1790 and was living in Georgia at the time of the first census. Unfortunately Georgia's first census was burned and no record exists now. Other Glovers, probably closely related to the families living in western South Carolina, were in Wilkes and Elbert Counties 1788-96, separated only by the Savannah River from those in the Ninety-Sixth District. Benjamin and his brother Allen were in Abbeville when Bp. Asbury (Methodist) visited the region in 1815. The two brothers, with other members of the family migrated to central Alabama in 1818/19 and Benjamin died there the next year. He left no will but his estate was inventoried and settled Apr. 10, 1820. The appraisers were Nathaniel Norwood (who became guardian of the younger son, Benjamin, Jr.) Burton Chappell, Isaac Perkins and Ludowick Moore. Allen Glover was a witness to the final settlement on May 21, 1821. It is thought that Benjamin had established a plantation near the present site of McKinley, but no graves were found.

Mary (Oliver) Glover, called "Polly" left a will dated Jul. 8, 1840 which names children and grandchildren (marked*) William J. Alston was her executor. Witnesses were Joseph B. Holman, Wilton Ford and Abel John.

(2) Jean

His will is dated March 14, 1819, probated Nov. 14, 1819 in Abbeville, S. C. (Box 107, Pk. 2845) The will names his wife Jean and his children, showing that this wife survived him. No record of her has been found in Alabama so she either remained in South Carolina or died soon after coming to Alabama. Mr. W. L. Glover of Charleston, S. C. wrote of a deed (no source given) of 1798 in which Frederick Glover deeded 150 acres on Beaver Dam Creek to his sons John and Allen Glover. In the same year they deed this plot to John Harris (their brother-in-law) their wives Mary and Sally signing their dower rights.

All of the children of John Frederick Glover migrated to Alabama. Descendents were not known so most of this line has been constructed from court records in Marengo Co., Ala.

Marengo Census 1840, 1850

Though census records show that children were living with him, it appears he had none of his own. His will, dated March 12, 1874 in Austin, Texas was also probated in Marengo Co. In it he names the children of his two brothers, Jarot H. and Allen T. Glover, and a niece Amanda Sterling as his heirs. As the word of the will states "children of my niece _____, dec'd." the names of their issue could not be determined. His wife is not named in the will so she probably pre-deceased him. He served as guardian for the minor children of his brothers and other relatives and would seem to have been a man in substantial circumstances.

- 3 D Allen T. Glover
b.
d. 1825
His will was not probated, but was found among the orphan court records. He did not leave a large estate and his children seem to have been quite young at the time of his death. The mother petitioned the court for legal guardianship of these children but the court rewarded the responsibility to Edwin Atwood Glover who also settled his brother's estate

E Willey Glover
 b. 1778 S. C.
 Marengo Census 1830.
 She must have been an outstanding woman as so many nieces were named for her that the name Wille (or Willie) has persisted to the present day. In the Marengo Deed Record A (p. 218, 180-187, 358) She made deeds of gifts of land and slaves to Jarrot H. Glover, his wife Nancy, and his children: Willey Ann, John F., Mary Elizabeth and Lydia (1824) In 1825 she gave property to John F. Glover, son of Allen T. Glover, and to her own brother Allen Glover. Edwin A. Glover also received lands in 1824.

 Elizabeth Glover, widow of Wiley Glover, m. before 1848 Aaron A. Clark.

Wiley Glover seems to have been a common name with the South Carolina generation and there were several of that name in the Old 96th District. The one below, taken from Georgia records, could possibly be the son of Frederick Glover.
